

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Date : 11 November, 2024

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

I am pleased to recommend Rajaa Lebnaiti, who successfully completed the Python for Data Science Internship at HUBBLEMIND LABS PRIVATE LIMITED from October 5, 2024, to November 5, 2024.

During the internship, Rajaa demonstrated strong skills in Python, data visualization, and machine learning, effectively applying them to various projects. She showcased excellent problem-solving abilities, contributed valuable insights, and consistently delivered high-quality work on time. Her dedication and ability to work both independently and as part of a team were particularly impressive.

I am confident that Rajaa will excel in future roles and highly recommend her for positions in Python and related fields.

Sincerely,

KRISHNA KUMAR
